17 December 2008

St. Mary Cathedral Choir is in the process of preparing their fourth annual Epiphany Lessons & Carols. This year the program will be held on Sunday afternoon, 4 January 2009 at 4:00pm. I am pleased to announce that the St. Mary Cathedral Choir will be joined this year by the Cathedral Children's Choir and The Barons of Brass. In addition to the traditional scripture readings and seasonal carol favorites, the choirs will be singing music by Nestor, Morales, Praetorius, Poston, Moe, and others.

As we have expanded the scope of this year's Epiphany Celebration, I would be very appreciative if you would share this information with your parishioners and singers. I would ask that you place the following announcement in your parish bulletins the weekends of 27-28 December 2008 and 3-4 January 2009. Some posters are also enclosed for the high traffic areas of the church, hall, and/or choir room. If you need more posters, please feel free to duplicate them. Additional copies may also be downloaded from the website at: www.StMaryCathedralMusic.com then click on Special Events.

St. Mary Cathedral will present their fourth annual Epiphany Lessons and Carols on Sunday, 4 January 2009 at 4:00pm. This program will feature choral and organ music of the season, scripture readings, and carols for all to sing. Adding to the festivity, the Cathedral Choir will be joined this year by the Cathedral Children's Choir and The Barons of Brass. The prelude begins at 3:40pm. The Cathedral is located at the corner of Seymour and Ionia Sts. in downtown Lansing. There is ample free parking in the area and the church is handicapped accessible. Admission is free and a reception follows in the Parish Center.

Thank you for your time, and I hope you and your parishioners will be able to join us to celebrate the arrival of the three kings. My best wishes for a holy and blessed Christmas.

Cordially Yours,

Michael Dulac, Music Director
